Works by Claudio Koporossy

Opening Reception: October 16, 2025, 5 – 8 pm

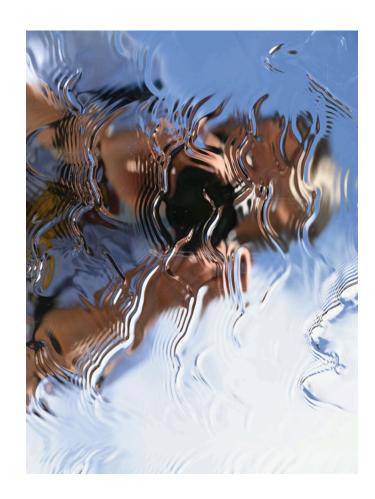

Exhibition Dates: October 17 – November 16, 2025

Pascal Robert Gallery takes pride in unveiling its forth exhibition within the vibrant heart of Zurich's Gallery District, an event that transcends mere institutional presentation to serve as a daring foray into the deeper contemporary artistic exploration.

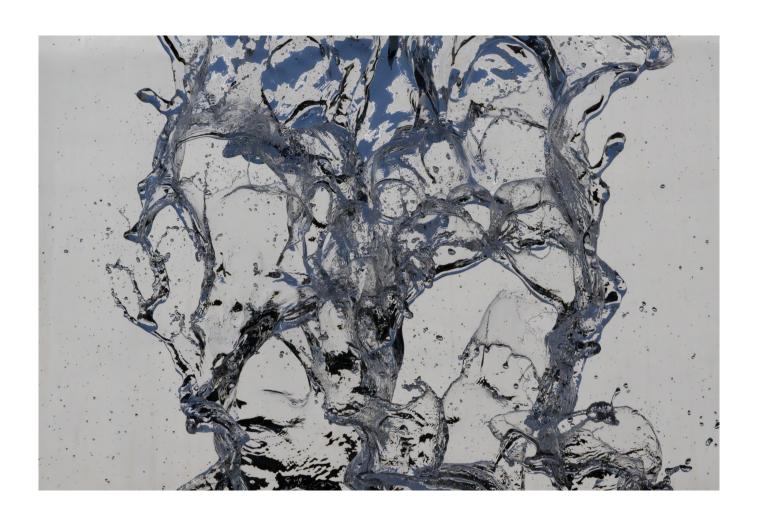

Claudio Koporossy is a Swiss/Italian fine art photographer whose meditative visual language captures the quiet, often overlooked rhythms of the natural world. With a background in classical music and engineering, Koporossy brings to his photographic practice a sense of harmony, structure, and technical precision. His images function like visual compositions – immersive and contemplative spaces where light, time, and surface interact to evoke introspection.

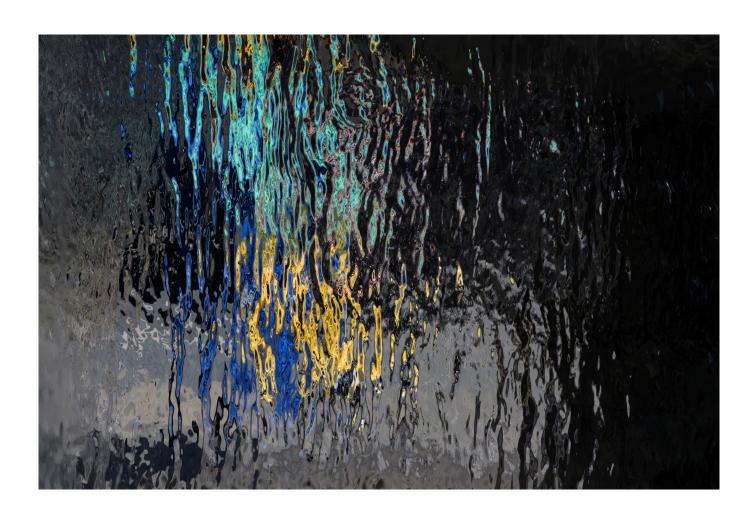

Koporossy's practice spans series focused on still lifes, water reflections, architectural textures, and natural patterns. Each work invites a pause: a chance to see the poetic in the everyday. His use of analog techniques embraces imperfection and spontaneity, balancing material intuition with a trained eye for composition. The result is a body of work that resists spectacle, offering instead a quiet intensity and timeless presence.

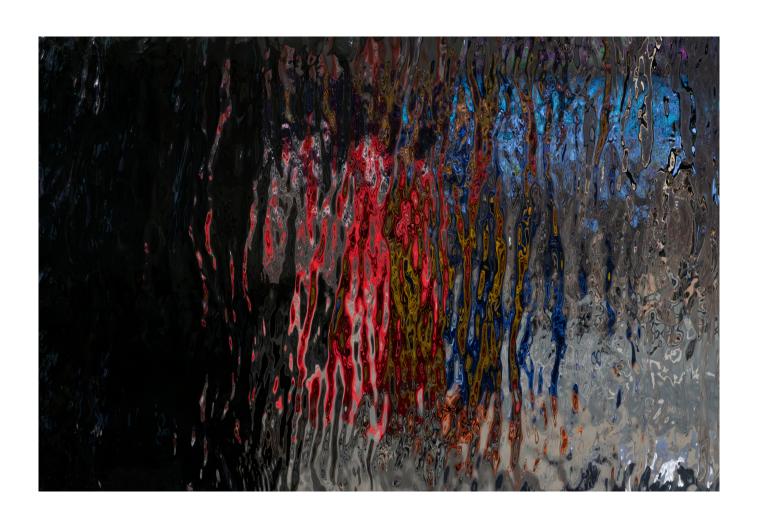

Over the years, Koporossy has exhibited across Europe and the United States. Notable exhibitions include «Acqua Russa» at the Academy of Fine Arts in St. Petersburg (2019), curated by then-director Semyon Mikhailovsky and featured in The Moscow Times; a major show in Ferrara, Italy (2021), and an exhibition at MART – Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art of Trento and Rovereto (2022), supported by art critic and MART President Vittorio Sgarbi. His most recent solo exhibition took place in Venice in February 2024.

«Water – ever-shifting, never the same.
At times a whisper, at times a roar, even you seem unsure of what you are becoming.»
